Analyse information from various perspectives to make informed decisions.

Serve and support their local and global communities in order to help others or influence change.

Work collaboratively with others to achieve a common goal.

Utilize self-awareness, self-regulation, motivation, empathy, and social skills to understand and interact with others.

Continually develop and expand their skills and knowledge in order to perform effectively and adapt to changes.

Promote open and honest communication by being active and respectful participants.

Continually develop and expand their skills and knowledge in order to perform effectively and adapt to changes.

Analyze information from various perspectives to make informed decisions.